

JOURNAL OF NANOSCIENCE AND NANOTECHNOLOGY

www.aspbs.com/jnn

CALL FOR PAPERS

A special issue on

Nanoarchitectonics of Porous Materials

AIM AND SCOPE

This special issue is focused on nanoscience and nanotechnology covering synthesis, characterization, properties, and applications of all types of porous materials. The topics also include nanofabrication and processing, manipulation, computational simulation, nanosensors, nanocatalysts, nano-integration, nanofluidics, nanomachining, structure analysis, applications in nanoelectronics, nano-optics, nanobiotechnology, and medical science using all kinds of porous materials.

JNN publishes original full research articles, rapid communications and timely state-of-the-art reviews with author's photo and short biography. The research article could be between 10 to 100 manuscript pages in length (equal to 3 to 35 printed journal pages) including figures, tables, and references. There is no page limit for review articles. The manuscript (communications and full research papers) should be 100% original and unpublished. JNN publishes colored figures FREE OF CHARGES to authors, therefore, please feel free to use as many high quality colored figures as possible in your research articles.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION

Please find manuscript preparation details at www.aspbs.com/jnn under the Instructions for Authors.

- (1) Please submit your manuscript as a single pdf file having text/figures/tables all together to ARIGA.Katsuhiko@nims.go.jp.
- (2) Please include a cover letter with an originality statement and a list of five potential referees (name, affiliation and email).
- (3) Please specify your manuscript as a special issue Nanoarchitectonics of Porous Materials on the first page to avoid any confusion with submission to general issues and other special issues.
- (4) Please do not submit supporting information or appendix separately instead make these a part of your manuscript.
- (5) The manuscript submission deadline is tentatively set for 31st AUGUST 2012.

NOTE: Please do not submit this manuscript to other Editors and Editor-in-Chief in order to avoid confusion
