

Materials Express manuscript checklist

- There is no abbreviation in Title.
- First names of all authors are given in full (not initialized).
- PIN code and country are mentioned for all affiliations.
- Corresponding author is marked* and corresponding e-mail address is given.
- At least 5 keywords are given.
- Manuscript is page-numbered.

- Section headings are given.
- Article* has sections and subsections, sequentially numbered.
- Communication* has only 4 main sections (no sub-section).
- Communication* has maximum 4 figures.
- There is no supporting information appendix.

- References are properly formatted.
- First name (initialized) followed by surname.
- All authors' names are given (NO et al.).
- Full article title is given in sentence case (only the first word capitalized, not all).
- Journal name is properly shortened (as per standard recommendations).
- Year is given at the end (bold and bracketed).

- All components of a figure are given on the same page.
- Figure components are labelled as (a), (b), (c)... Not as (A), (B), (C)... or a), b), c)...
- Figure captions are given under each figure (on the same page).
- Any scheme, photo, flowchart etc. is termed as Figure and sequentially numbered.
- There is no reference in figure caption (except for Review articles).
- While presenting any pre-published figure, the figure caption must state like this:
Reproduced with permission from [Ref No.] A. Matsuda et al., Sol. Energy Mater. Sol. Cells 78, 3 (2003). © 2003, Elsevier.